

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

Parents' Fund Donor Report

Fiscal Year 2008 | July 1, 2007 – June 30, 2008

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

Dear Parents,

On behalf of Loyola University Chicago, I want to thank everyone who contributed to the Parents' Fund this past fiscal year. The Parents' Fund raised a record $119,859 in generous donations from hundreds of parents across the country. In addition to financial support, involvement in the Parents' Leadership Council and the Parents' Association continues to grow as parents become more actively involved in our University community.

The Parents' Fund plays an important role in providing the best possible education by supporting special initiatives and programs rooted in our identity as Chicago's Jesuit, Catholic University. Gifts to the Parents' Fund make a difference in the Loyola undergraduate experience by supporting ministry initiatives, including Evoke (Encouraging Vocation through Knowledge and Experience), retreats, and immersion opportunities.

In the following pages, you will learn more about the difference parent involvement makes in enhancing the undergraduate experience. I am grateful for your commitment to Loyola University Chicago, and I appreciate the active role you play as a parent in our community.

Thank you for your ongoing support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael J. Garanzini, S.J." with a stylized flourish at the end.

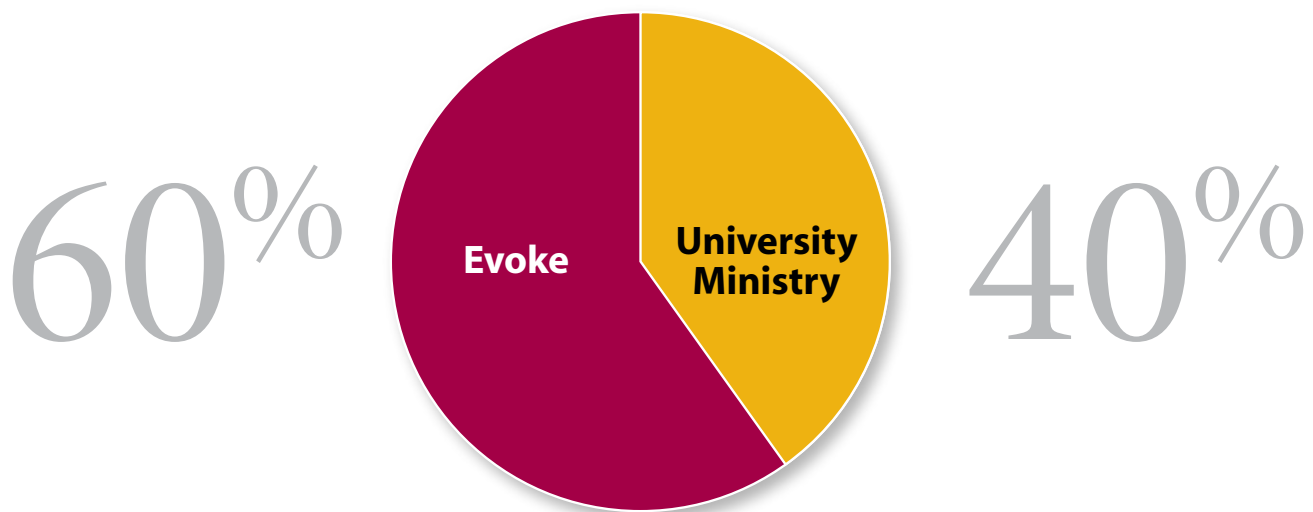

Michael J. Garanzini, S.J.
President

P.S. I hope you will save the date for Loyola's Family Weekend September 26-28, 2008. This is a great opportunity to spend time with your family on campus and to participate in special weekend programs for parents, alumni, and students.

The Parents' Fund — Your Support Makes a Difference

The Parents' Fund supports initiatives central to our identity as a Jesuit, Catholic University.

Donated funds are divided between:

Evoke

- OnCall
- Call of the Open Road
- Evoke Week
- Evoke Scholars
- Courses
- Speaker Series

Evoke (Encouraging Vocation through Knowledge and Experience) offers a wide variety of events, retreats, and immersion experiences to help students, faculty, and staff explore their callings. All provide the formative resources that make Loyola distinct in the Jesuit tradition. Evoke encourages, supports, and challenges everyone at Loyola to identify and respond to their callings. Each person, regardless of spiritual tradition, has a calling to help make the world a better place.

University Ministry

- Retreats
- Service Trips
- Loyola4Chicago
- First-Year Ministry
- Home for All Faiths

In carrying out Loyola's Mission, University Ministry seeks to:

- Educate people for others in living a faith that promotes justice.
- Build community by creating a home for all faiths and by weaving itself into the fabric of Loyola's academic, social, and residential life.
- Encourage all Loyolans to develop their personal faith by seeking God in all things and by fostering Catholic liturgical and sacramental life.
- Promote the development of the whole person with an emphasis on leadership for the Church and society.

Evoke

Evoke encourages, supports, and challenges everyone at Loyola to identify and respond to their callings as a starting point for leading extraordinary lives.

OnCall

OnCall is a one-year enrichment program for up to 30 students who have a deep interest in discovering their true passions and linking them with their talents to make a difference in the world. Through large and small group experiences and individual meetings with Loyola faculty/staff mentors, a supportive and encouraging environment is created for students to question, explore, and listen to their lives.

“Evoke asked the important questions of ‘What is my place in the world? Where do I fit in the scheme of things? How can I make things better?’ It was truly invaluable...”

— Loyola undergraduate student

Call of the Open Road, Spring Break Immersion Trip

If you could interview anyone in the country about their job, career, or calling, who would you choose? Evoke put this question to its OnCall students, and with a little help, the students set up interviews in New York City, D.C., and New Jersey over their spring break. Chosen interviewees ranged from the New York City capital defender to a researcher at the National Institute of Health. During each interview, the students asked, “When you were my age, did you know what you wanted to do with your life?” The answers were surprisingly liberating and helped students see their life as a journey that may lead them in many unexpected directions.

Evoke Week

Evoke Week is an annual five-day celebration raising awareness of vocation through speakers, workshops, and the popular Evoke Jam!, a campus-wide social event that brings together students, staff, and faculty for music, food, and team competition.

Evoke Scholars

The Evoke Scholars program awards $2,500 scholarships for five Loyola juniors or seniors each year who are seriously considering callings to Church or lay ministry.

Evoke Courses

In Evoke courses, professors connect vocation or personal calling to the material that students are learning in fields ranging from business to nursing to psychology to classical studies. The impact of Evoke-themed courses reached far beyond immediate career decisions for many students. “The course gave me questions that I never considered to ask about my life choices and how to comprehend choices in the future.”

Evoke Speaker Series

The Evoke Speaker Series brings well-known national and local scholars, celebrities, athletes, activists, and professionals to campus to discuss their callings. Speakers this past year included David Walton, doctor for Partners in Health; Sue Monk Kidd, New York Times best-selling author; and Patch Adams, MD, health care activist.

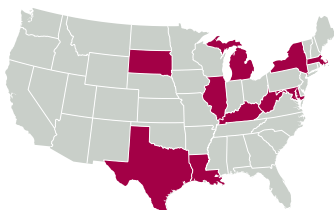

Students attending Evoke Jam III, a campus-wide celebration of calling.

University Ministry

University Ministry programs assist students from all religious traditions in seeking God in all things.

Service Trips

Alternative Break Immersions (ABIs) lets students focus on justice and service by working with those who are marginalized.

Other ABIs:

Mexico | El Salvador | Guatemala

“I am not in such a hurry to grow up and be out of college anymore. ABI has opened me up to a world of adventure and I am refreshed in my spirit and renewed in my love of people. I will always be grateful for the changes it has evoked in my life.”

— Loyola student reflects on ABI trip to New Orleans

Community Service | Loyola4Chicago

Loyola4Chicago places students in volunteer work teams. These teams dedicate four hours each week at a community organization and meet monthly to reflect on their service.

“The consistency of going back each week helped to form relationships and connections with the clients, not simply just service.”

— Loyola undergraduate student

First-year students take time out to reflect on their gifts and passions on the Explore! Retreat.

Residence Hall Ministry Outreach

First-Year Ministry serves as a visible, invitational, and pastorally present team that serves first-year, sophomore, and transfer students. Chaplains and Loyola peer ministers engage students in service, community building and reflection.

- Twice-Weekly Soup Kitchen
- Chicago Urban Immersions
- Explore Retreats
- Hospitality
- Liturgies
- Pastoral and Crisis Outreach

Retreats

Numerous retreats are offered throughout the year to foster faith and spiritual growth.

“This program is so powerful because it takes you away for long enough that you begin to be able to see your life in a much clearer way and helps you to dream about the direction of your life.”

— Loyola student reflects on Search retreat

- Christian Leadership Retreat
- Explore Retreat
- Search Retreat
- Living Justice Retreat
- Busy Students Retreat
- Ignatius Silent Directed Retreat
- Senior Retreat

Home for All Faiths

University Ministry celebrates the diverse beliefs of students at Loyola. In addition to those fostering a rich Jesuit, Catholic liturgical life, University Ministry supports many other faith-based student organizations.

- Hillel
- Hindu Student Organization
- Loyola Gospel Choir
- Muslim Student Association
- Loyola Lutherans
- Orthodox Christian Fellowship

Hillel Director Patti Ray was given the Dux Mirabilis Award at the annual Founder’s Dinner in June 2008. During her 20 years at Loyola, Patti has reached out to people of all faiths through dialogue and collaborative programming.

A Message from the Parents' Leadership Council

Dear Parents,

As national co-chairs for the Parents' Leadership Council, we want to thank all parents who joined us this year in the annual Parents' Fund campaign. The generosity of the class co-chairs and council members, coupled with all who supported the Parents' Fund, provided support to fund key initiatives on campus.

The generous help of so many parents across the country made a lasting impact on undergraduate students like our two daughters, Kaitlyn and Elizabeth. Both of them continue to have an outstanding experience in their studies in the School of Nursing and School of Business Administration. As parents, we believe strongly in the education and mission of Loyola and show our support in leading the Parents' Fund campaign.

We would like to extend an invitation for you to join us this year as a member of the Parents' Leadership Council. Your involvement will play a major role for new and expanded living and learning opportunities while furthering the mission of the University by your leadership support to the Parents' Fund. We hope you will continue to serve with us in raising funds to support important initiatives in the year ahead by making your annual gift to the Parents' Fund. Enclosed is an envelope for your convenience. Please consider making a contribution.

We look forward to another great year ahead!

Sincerely,
